

Newsletter voor de alumni

During the last weeks, K.U.Leuven participated in the China Education Expo in Beijing and Shanghai. A delegation of K.U.Leuven came to China for this occasion. Prof. Bart De Moor, Vice Rector Internationalisation, Mr Bart Hendrickx, Director International Office and Ms Vicky Wandels, Staff Member International Office also visited a number of important partners of K.U.Leuven while in China.

On Saturday 17 and Sunday 18 October, K.U.Leuven participated in the China Education Expo in Beijing. Some of the Chinese alumni of our university provided their help and told their story about studying in Leuven to interested students and parents.

On Tuesday 20 October 2009, the K.U.Leuven delegation visited Tsinghua University. Tsinghua is the main strategic partner of K.U.Leuven in China. In 2007 Leuven and Tsinghua signed a central cooperation agreement and a student exchange agreement. Four of our departments signed specific bilateral agreements with Tsinghua as well (Architecture, Biomedical Sciences, Electrical Engineering and Business & Economics). On this picture Prof. Bart De Moor, Vice Rector Internationalisation, K.U.Leuven and Prof. Xie Weihe, Vice President Internationalisation, Tsinghua exchanging gifts.

On Tuesday evening, K.U.Leuven invited the Chinese alumni whom helped us out during the fair in Beijing and the K.U.Leuven students currently studying in China for dinner at South Beauty Restaurant.

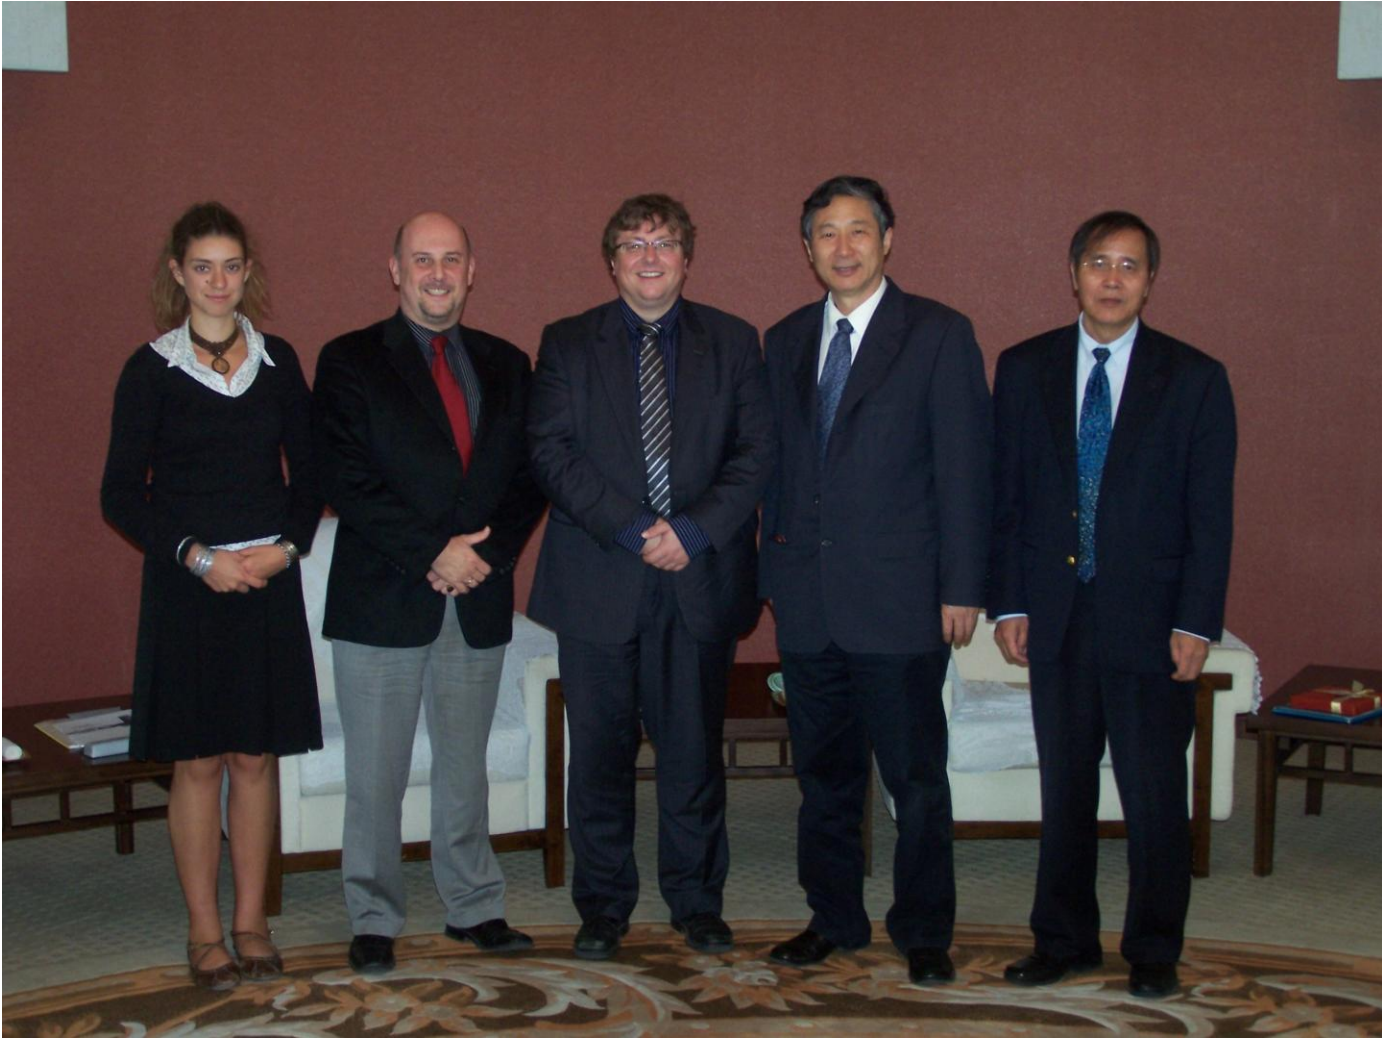

On Wednesday morning the delegation had a discussion with Peking University. Peking University has been a partner of K.U.Leuven since 2000. On the picture you can see Vice President De Moor discussing the future cooperation between our two universities with Prof. Li Yansong, Director of the Office of International Relations at Peking University.

After our meeting we made a very nice tour around the campus of Peking University.

On Thursday the K.U.Leuven delegation travelled to Hangzhou city and had the honor to be a guest of Zhejiang University.

On Friday morning we visited our fourth important bilateral partner, Fudan University

On Saturday 24 and Sunday 25 October, K.U.Leuven participated in the China Education Expo in Shanghai.

