

Namens het International Office nodigen we u van harte uit op één van de workshops die Prof. Michael Paige zal geven op vrijdag 5 november aan de K.U.Leuven.

Prof. Paige (University of Minnesota, VS) is een eminent en wereldwijd bekend spreker, die een heel aantal onderzoekersprojecten heeft geleid met als centraal thema 'Study Abroad', w.o. Study Abroad for Global Engagement (SAGE), Study Abroad and Its Transformative Power, Maximizing Study Abroad – Facilitating Language and Culture Learning.

Over dit laatste thema zal hij op donderdagavond 4 november een lezing geven voor internationale én Vlaamse studenten (20u, Auditorium Max Weber).

Hieronder vindt u het programma met een mogelijkheid tot inschrijving.

Vrijdag, 5 November 2010

Workshop 1: 9u-12u30

Campusbibliotheek Arenberg, W. de Croylaan 6, Nicolas de le Villezaal 01.10

"The Global-Intercultural Campus: International Students and Campus Life"

Doelpubliek: coördinatoren van internationale programma's (w.o. Erasmus, Masters, Doctoral Schools, enz.), verantwoordelijken internationalisering, medewerkers International Office, Studentenvoorzieningen, enz.

Abstract: This workshop will focus on the international student experience and the ways in which international officers can support international students throughout their programs. Topics will include: integrating international students into campus life, preparing international students for the academic culture, working with culturally diverse student communities, the role of international students in the intercultural dimension of the curriculum, and supporting the intercultural development of international and domestic students.

Workshop 2: 14u-17u30

Campusbibliotheek Arenberg, W. de Croylaan 6, Nicolas de le Villezaal 01.10

"The Intercultural Dimension of Campus Life"

Doelpubliek: academisch personeel

Abstract: This workshop will examine the intercultural dimension of the curriculum. Topics will include: the intercultural dimension of the curriculum, supporting intercultural learning across the curriculum, intercultural learning from and with international students, teaching to diverse student populations, international partnerships, international opportunities for faculty professors.

Deze workshops zijn gratis, maar het aantal deelnemers is beperkt. Gelieve tijdig (vóór 3 november) uw aanwezigheid te melden via intercultural@kuleuven.be. Wij hopen van harte u te mogen ontmoeten op één van deze workshops.

Professor Bart De Moor
Vicerector Internationaal beleid

Klaartje Proesmans
International Office/ Intercultural Officer

On behalf of the International Office, we cordially invite you to one of the workshops
Professor Michael Paige will lead on Friday, 5 November at K.U.Leuven.

Professor Paige (University of Minnesota, USA) is an eminent and world-famous speaker who has directed numerous research projects related to 'Studying Abroad', such as Study Abroad for Global Engagement (SAGE), Study Abroad and Its Transformative Power, Maximizing Study Abroad – Facilitating Language and Culture Learning.

He will deliver a lecture on the latter theme for international and Flemish students on Thursday, 4 November (8 pm, Auditorium Max Weber).

You will find the programme and the registration form below.

Friday, 5 November 2010

Workshop 1: 9u-12u30

Heverlee, Campusbibliotheek Arenberg, W. de Croijlaan 6, Nicolas de le Villezaal 01.10

"The Global-Intercultural Campus: International Students and Campus Life"

Target audience: co-ordinators of international programmes (Erasmus, Master's, Doctoral Schools, etc.), staff leading internationalisation projects, staff of the International Office, Student Services, etc.

Abstract: This workshop will focus on the international student experience and the ways in which international officers can support international students throughout their programs. Topics will include: integrating international students into campus life, preparing international students for the academic culture, working with culturally diverse student communities, the role of international students in the intercultural dimension of the curriculum, and supporting the intercultural development of international and domestic students.

Workshop 2: 14u-17u30

Heverlee, Campusbibliotheek Arenberg, W. de Croijlaan 6, Nicolas de le Villezaal 01.10

"The Intercultural Dimension of Campus Life"

Target audience: academic staff

Abstract: This workshop will examine the intercultural dimension of the curriculum. Topics will include: the intercultural dimension of the curriculum, supporting intercultural learning across the curriculum, intercultural learning from and with international students, teaching to diverse student populations, international partnerships, international opportunities for faculty professors.

These workshops are free, but the number of participants is limited. Please register on time (before 3 November) by sending a message to intercultural@kuleuven.be. We look forward to welcoming you to one of the workshops.

Professor Bart De Moor
Vice Rector for International Policy

Klaartje Proesmans
International Office/ Intercultural Officer